Where the Developer and Everyone Fits In

What is in it for Me?

- Find a problem or need that is poorly served in your life that you think can be solved / served much better.
- Hack a good enough solution to the core of that problem / need using pervasive technology.
- Partner with great peoples and Teams.
- Focus on your customers and refine the solution given their usage (first) and feedback (second).
- Build a company to dominate your region and enjoy making people happy.
